CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR WRIT OF PROHIBITION OR MANDAMUS

This original petition for a writ of prohibition or mandamus challenges a district court order requiring petitioners to dissolve their attorney liens.

The real parties in interests' answers indicate that a settlement of the underlying lawsuit has been reached between them and petitioners, and petitioners have filed a motion for voluntary dismissal. The parties all agree that this petition is now moot.

Accordingly, we dismiss the petition<sup>1</sup> and vacate the stay imposed by our March 30, 2004 order. The parties shall bear their own fees and costs, if any.

It is so ORDERED.
