CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Richards
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This proper person appeal from a district court judgment was docketed in this court on March 12, 2004. On the same day, this court's clerk issued a notice that the supreme court filing fee was due within ten days. Because appellant did not pay the fee, on April 12, 2004, we issued an order directing appellant to pay the filing fee within ten days and cautioning appellant that his failure to pay the filing fee could result in dismissal of his appeal. To date, appellant has neither paid the filing fee nor otherwise responded to our directive. Accordingly, we ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.¹
