DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This proper person appeal is taken from a district court minute order denying a motion regarding possession of an automobile and denying a motion for judicial disqualification. Our review of the documents transmitted under NRAP 3(e) reveals a jurisdictional defect. In particular, it appears that the district court has not entered formal written orders. Under NRAP 4(a)(1), any notice of appeal must be filed after the court enters a written order and not more than thirty days after written notice of the order's entry is served.¹ Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we dismiss it.

It is so ORDERED.
