ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a July 9, 2004 district court summary judgment in an employment matter. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jennifer Togliatti, Judge. When this court's review of the docketing statement and the NRAP 3(e) documents indicated that the district court might not have entered a final written judgment adjudicating all of the rights and liabilities of all the parties, particularly the rights and liabilities of the Public Employees Retirement System of Nevada and the Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training, we ordered appellant to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.¹

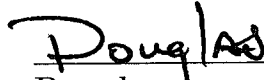

In response to our show cause order, appellant implied that the district court had not yet entered written dispositions involving all of the claims against those parties and conceded that this court does not ²Appellant has requested dismissal of this appeal without prejudice. Dismissals by this court for lack of appellate jurisdiction are necessarily with prejudice. However, nothing precludes appellant from filing a new appeal when the district court enters a final judgment in this matter. Lee, 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416.
