ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

JANE I. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Riddell
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

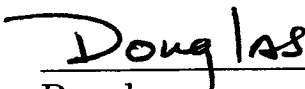

This proper person appeal is taken from a district court order that granted respondent's motion for summary judgment. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Kenneth C. Cory, Judge.

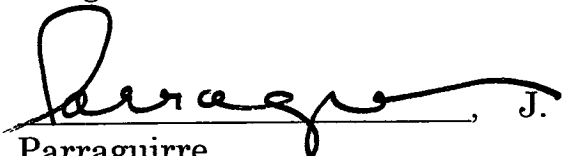

On August 16, 2004, this court directed appellant to pay the supreme court filing fee within ten days. As no fee was proffered, this court then ordered appellant, on October 13, 2004, to pay the filing fee or to comply with NRAP 24(a) by filing a motion to proceed in forma pauperis in the district court. Thereafter, on November 4, 2004, this court received appellant's motion for an additional thirty days to respond to this court's filing fee order. No further submissions were received. On February 16, 2005, this court granted appellant an additional thirty days to either pay the supreme court filing fee or to comply with NRAP 24(a). In that order, we informed appellant that if he complied with NRAP 24(a) by filing a district court motion for in forma pauperis status, he was required to immediately inform this court.

To date, appellant has not responded in any way to our February 16, 2005 order. Consequently, we conclude that he has abandoned this appeal, and we therefore dismiss it.

It is so ORDERED.
