ORDER DENYING PETITION

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Richards
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

This is a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus. Petitioner seeks an order compelling his attorney to transfer transcripts used by the attorney in preparing an appeal in 2000. We have considered the petition on file herein, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted at this time.<sup>1</sup> It does not appear from this court's review of the documents before it that petitioner has followed the proper procedures for compelling transfer of <sup>2</sup>See NRS 7.055. It is unclear from the documents before this court that petitioner's attorney has been discharged. Petitioner may file a motion to discharge his attorney of record in the district court. Petitioner may then make a demand upon the attorney for immediate delivery of the papers and pleadings. After five days have passed from the notice to the attorney, petitioner may move the district court to compel delivery.
