CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL
AND GRANTING MOTION TO WITHDRAW

This is an appeal from a "Stipulated Judgment" entered in a probate proceeding. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Stewart L. Bell, Judge.

Because our preliminary review of this appeal revealed a potential jurisdictional defect, this court ordered appellant to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Specifically, it appeared that appellant was not an aggrieved party with standing to appeal because she stipulated to the judgment.

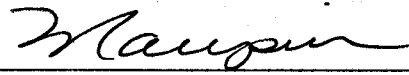

On March 30, 2006, appellant submitted in proper person a response to the order to show cause and an amended docketing statement. We note that appellant has neither sought, nor been granted, leave to file documents in proper person.¹ Although appellant is represented by counsel in this appeal, appellant's counsel has moved to withdraw. Cause appearing, we grant attorney William B. Palmer's motion to withdraw as counsel for appellant. Because appellant is no longer represented by counsel, and in the interest of judicial economy, the clerk of this court shall file the documents received on March 30, 2006.

We have reviewed appellant's response and respondents' reply, and we conclude that this court lacks jurisdiction to consider this appeal. Only an aggrieved party may appeal.² Because appellant stipulated to the judgment, she is not an aggrieved party.³ Accordingly, we
