

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

BRIAN EUGENE LEPLEY,
Appellant,
vs.
WARDEN, LOVELOCK CORRECTIONAL CENTER, CRAIG FARWELL; AND DIRECTOR, NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF
CORRECTIONS, JACKIE CRAWFORD, Respondents.

No. 44743

FILED

OCT 21 2005

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Richards
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order denying appellant's petition for a writ of prohibition. Sixth Judicial District Court, Pershing County; Richard Wagner and John M. Iroz, Judges.

A writ of prohibition is only available if the petitioner has no adequate legal remedy.¹ Here, petitioner has, and indeed, has exercised other legal remedies. Accordingly, writ relief was not available, and the district court properly denied the petition. We therefore affirm its order.

It is so ORDERED.²

Douglas, J.
Douglas

Rose, J.
Rose

Parraguirre, J.
Parraguirre

¹NRS 34.330.

²Although appellant was not granted leave to file papers in proper person, see NRAP 46(b), we have considered the proper person documents received from him.

cc: Hon. John M. Iroz, District Judge
Hon. Richard Wagner, District Judge
Brian Eugene Lepley
Attorney General Brian Sandoval/Carson City
Pershing County District Attorney
Pershing County Clerk