

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

PHILIP ANTHONY GARLAND, Appellant,
vs.
JENNIFER DIANE GARLAND, N/K/A
JENNIFER COLEMAN-TEAGUE, Respondent.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

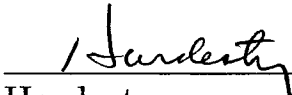

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order that specified that appellant is allowed to pick up his child from school at the curbside only, and that the child is to call the respondent when she has been picked up. Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Court Division, Clark County; Sandra Pomrenze, Judge.

Our review of the documents before us reveals a jurisdictional defect. The district court's order is not an appealable special order after final judgment, as it does not alter the rights or liabilities of any party.¹ The district court's order merely enforces the court's prior order awarding child custody and therefore does not constitute a special order after final judgment. Consequently, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we dismiss it.

It is so ORDERED.²

¹Gumm v. Mainor, 118 Nev. 912, 59 P.3d 1220 (2002).

²We note that appellant's failure to pay the supreme court filing fee could constitute an independent basis on which to dismiss this appeal.
