No. 45242

ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS (NOS. 44981 AND 45104) AND DIRECTING TRANSMISSION OF A SUPPLEMENTAL RECORD

These proper person appeals challenge several district court orders granting motions to dismiss in a real property dispute. Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Janet J. Berry, Judge.

The appeals in Docket Nos. 44981 and 45104 challenge March 16 and 31, 2005 district court orders dismissing appellant's claims against Western Title Company, David Rankin, Carol Stokes, the Honorable Deborah Schumacher, District Judge, and Ronald A. Longtin, Jr. The appeal in Docket No. 45242 challenges a May 3, 2005 district court order dismissing claims against Anna Marie Byron.

Our review of the appeals in Docket Nos. 44981 and 45104 reveals jurisdictional defects. The right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists.<sup>1</sup> NRAP 3A(b)(1) authorizes an appeal from a district court's final written order adjudicating all the rights and liabilities of all the parties.<sup>2</sup> Interlocutory district court orders, however, are generally not independently appealable.<sup>3</sup>

It appears that the district court's May 3 order, dismissing claims against the last remaining party, Anna Byron, constitutes the final judgment in this matter. Consequently, the March 16 and 31 district court orders dismissing appellant's claims against the other parties are interlocutory and not independently appealable. As we lack jurisdiction, we dismiss the appeals in Docket Nos. 44981 and 45104.

Nevertheless, we note that appellant may challenge the March 16 and 31 interlocutory orders within the context of his appeal in Docket No. 45242 from the final order in this matter.<sup>4</sup> Further, we have reviewed the documents on file in Docket No. 45242, and we conclude that our review of the complete record is warranted.<sup>5</sup> Accordingly, we direct the clerk of this court to file, in Docket No. 45242, the record that was ordered transmitted in Docket Nos. 44981 and 45104. In addition, within one hundred and twenty days from the date of this order, the clerk of the district court shall transmit to the clerk of this court a certified copy of a supplemental trial court record in District Court Case No. CV0402471, which shall include copies of any documents not already included in the record on appeal.<sup>6</sup> The supplemental record shall not include any exhibits filed in the district court.

It is so ORDERED.
