ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a district court order dismissing an appeal from a justice's court order. Fifth Judicial District Court, Nye County; Robert W. Lane, Judge.

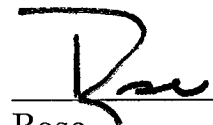

When our preliminary review of the docketing statement and the documents submitted to this court pursuant to NRAP 3(e) revealed a potential jurisdictional defect, we ordered appellants to show cause why their appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Specifically, we noted that district courts have final appellate jurisdiction over cases arising in justices' courts;¹ therefore it appeared that this court lacked jurisdiction to consider this appeal. Appellants filed their response to this court's show cause order on September 6, 2005. Appellants' response fails, ¹Nev. Const. art. 6, § 6; see also Waugh v. Casazza, 85 Nev. 520, 521, 458 P.2d 359, 360 (1969) (noting that "[t]he district court has final appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in the justice's court.").

however, to provide any arguments as to why the appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Accordingly, as final appellate jurisdiction over cases arising in justices' courts is vested in the district courts,² we lack jurisdiction over this appeal, and we
