ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

These proper person appeals challenge a district court order dismissing appellant's complaint (Docket No. 45444) and a district court order denying a motion for reconsideration (Docket No. 45446). Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Peter I. Breen, Judge (Docket No. 45444), and Brent T. Adams, Judge (Docket No. 45446).

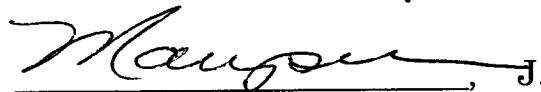

Our review of these appeals reveals jurisdictional defects. Specifically, in Docket No. 45444, it appears that the district court's order dismissing appellant's claims against Washoe County does not resolve all claims against all parties, because some or all of appellant's claims against a number of parties, including Dennis Balaam and respondents Sheriff

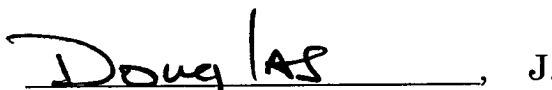

Yonker and Sheriff Beltron, remain pending below. Consequently, the district court has not entered a final, appealable judgment.<sup>1</sup> Additionally, the district court did not certify its order as final under NRCP 54(b).

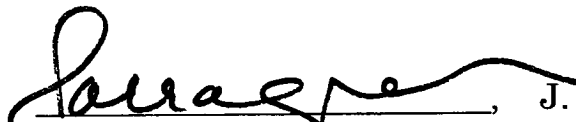

Further, the right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an appeal, no right to appeal exists.<sup>2</sup> No statute or court rule provides for an appeal from the order challenged in Docket No. 45446, denying appellant's motion to reconsider an order setting aside a default entry.<sup>3</sup>

Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider these appeals, and we

ORDER these appeals DISMISSED.

We note that appellant may raise any issues with respect to the court's order dismissing Washoe County in an appeal from the final judgment. See Consolidated Generator v. Cummins Engine, 114 Nev. 1304, 1312, 971 P.2d 1251, 1256 (1998).
