ORDER DENYING PETITION
FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS OR PROHIBITION

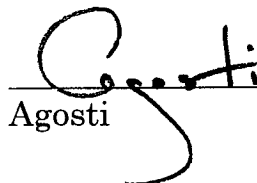

This original proper person petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges a protection order entered against petitioner and seeks to compel a change of venue. We have considered this petition, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted. Accordingly, we deny the petition.¹

It is so ORDERED.²

¹See NRAP 21(b); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 818 P.2d 849 (1991).

²Although petitioner was not granted permission to file papers in proper person, see NRAP 46(b), we have considered the documents submitted by petitioner. In addition, we conclude that petitioner has demonstrated good cause to waive the filing fee and so we waive the fee. See NRAP 21(e). In light of this order we deny as moot the September 1, 2005 motion for a status conference made by counsel for real party in interest Terry Gilmartin. The Honorable Miriam Shearing, Senior Justice, and the Honorable Deborah A. Agosti, Senior Justice, participated in the decision of this matter under a general order of assignment entered on July 14, 2005.
