CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

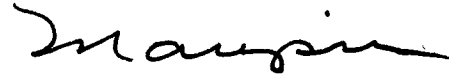

This is a proper person appeal. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Nancy M. Saitta, Judge.

To the extent that appellant seeks to appeal from the district court's dismissal of an appeal from a justice's court order, this court lacks jurisdiction to hear the appeal, as the district court has final appellate jurisdiction over appeals from justice's court orders.¹ Additionally, to the extent that appellant seeks to appeal from a final judgment or order entered by the district court, it appears that the appeal is premature, and thus, this court lacks jurisdiction, as the district court has not entered a final written order or judgment in the underlying case.² Accordingly, as we lack jurisdiction over this appeal, we dismiss it.

¹Nev. Const. art. 6, § 6; see also Waugh v. Casazza, 85 Nev. 520, 521, 458 P.2d 359, 360 (1969) (noting that "[t]he district court has final appellate jurisdiction in cases arising in the justice's court.").

It is so ORDERED.

²NRAP 3A(b)(1); Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 426, 996 P.2d 416, 417 (2000) (stating that “a final judgment is one that disposes of all the issues presented in the case, and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney’s fees and costs.”); Rust v. Clark Cty. School District, 103 Nev. 686, 689, 747 P.2d 1380, 1382 (1987) (noting that only a written judgment has any effect, and thus, only a written judgment may be appealed).
