ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL AND IMPOSING SANCTIONS

On July 11, 2006, this court entered an order removing this appeal from the settlement program and directing counsel for appellant to show cause why sanctions should not be imposed. The settlement judge recommended the imposition of sanctions as appellant had failed to submit a settlement statement and failed to appear at a scheduled conference. Our order also directed appellant to request transcripts in compliance with NRAP 9(a). Further, noting that this court had issued two notices directing appellant to file the docketing statement, we directed appellant to file the docketing statement within 15 days. Based on appellant's failures to submit a settlement statement, attend the settlement conference and file a docketing statement, our order cautioned that monetary sanctions might be imposed against counsel and the appeal may be dismissed.

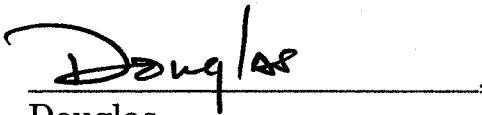

As of the date of this order, counsel has failed to respond to our order or file any of the required documents. Accordingly, we conclude that the imposition of sanctions is appropriate. Attorney Mary P. Groesbeck shall personally pay the sum of $500 to the Clark County Law Library and file proof of payment of that sanction with the clerk of this court within 30 days. We caution Ms. Groesbeck that failure to comply with this order may result in the imposition of additional sanctions, including referral to the State Bar of Nevada. Further, we dismiss this appeal.

It is so ORDERED.
