ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS OR PROHIBITION

This original petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges an oral district court order "remanding" the underlying termination of parental rights case to the district judge against whom petitioner Raymond Briggs had filed a timely peremptory challenge. On May 9, 2006, we granted a stay and directed an answer from the real parties in interest. A timely answer was filed, in which the real parties in interest demonstrate that the challenged order has been withdrawn, and the underlying district court case has been reassigned to a department that has not been peremptorily challenged. Accordingly, since the relief requested in the petition has already been granted, we dismiss this petition as moot.¹

It is so ORDERED.
