ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order denying appellant's request to file a criminal complaint. Seventh Judicial District Court, White Pine County; Dan L. Papez, Judge.

Our review of this appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. This court has jurisdiction to consider an appeal only when the appeal is authorized by statute or court rule.¹ Although a court rule authorizes an appeal to be taken from a final judgment in an action or proceeding,² the district court order here denies appellant's interlocutory filing request and does not finally resolve his civil case.³ No statute or court rule authorizes ²See NRAP 3A(b)(1).

³See Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000) (noting that a final appealable judgment is one that disposes of all the rights and liabilities of all parties, except for certain post-judgment issues like attorney fees and costs).

an independent appeal from an interlocutory order denying a filing request.⁴

Accordingly, we
