ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order setting aside a default judgment. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Kenneth C. Cory, Judge.

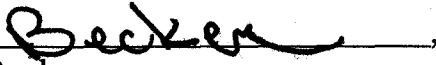

Our review of this appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. This court has jurisdiction to consider an appeal only when the appeal is authorized by statute or court rule.¹ NRAP 3A(b)(2) authorizes appeals from special orders after final judgment, "except an order granting a motion filed and served within sixty (60) days following entry of a default judgment, setting aside the judgment pursuant to NRCF 60(b)(1)."

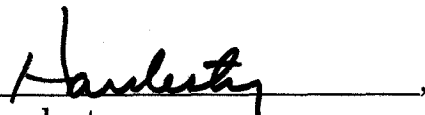

Here, the July 6, 2006 order appealed from falls within this exception to our jurisdiction over post-judgment orders because it grants a motion to set aside a June 6, 2006 default judgment, and the motion was
