ORDER GRANTING PETITION

The Board of Continuing Legal Education (the Board) has filed a petition with this court regarding the status of certain members of the State Bar of Nevada (respondent attorneys) who failed to comply fully with the Supreme Court Rules governing continuing legal education. See SCR 205 – 215. Specifically, the Board petitioned this court to order those respondent attorneys who are presently active to show cause why their membership status should not be changed to inactive and, from the date of such change of status, be barred from practicing law in the State of Nevada until reinstated under SCR 213. Further, as to those respondent attorneys who are already inactive or suspended, to show cause why their rights of reinstatement to active status should not be conditioned upon full compliance with SCR 213, in addition to any conditions of reinstatement already imposed upon them.

On March 6, 2007, this court entered an order directing the following active attorneys to show cause why this court should not grant the Board's petition to change their status from active to inactive and to condition their right to be reinstated upon full compliance with SCR 213:

David E. Adkins
Steven M. Altig
John P. Calvert

James O. Porter
William R. Pritchard
Peter N. Reynolds
Peter M. Rinato
Paul A. Sherman
Marcus H. Sloan, III

That order also directed the following inactive, suspended or disbarred attorneys to show cause why this court should not grant the Board's petition and condition their right to be reinstated to active status upon full compliance with SCR 213 in addition to any conditions of reinstatement already imposed or which may hereafter be imposed:

Christina M. Milligan

Accordingly, we conclude that these respondent attorneys have completed the requirements for reinstatement under SCR 213, and we dismiss the Board's petition with prejudice as to each of them.

Further, on March 22, 2007, the Board filed a document entitled "Consent to Dismissal," informing this court that Carol S. Comer resigned from the State Bar of Nevada on December 15, 2006. Accordingly, we dismiss the Board's petition with prejudice as to Carol S. Comer.
