DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING PETITION AND MOTION

This is a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus, or alternatively, a writ of prohibition and a motion for temporary restraining order and injunctive relief. Petitioner challenges the computation of time served as earned and applied towards his sentence. Petitioner further argues that the Western Nevada Community College has failed to accept transfer credits. Finally, petitioner argues that he has been harassed by prison staff and that his property has been illegally confiscated.

We have reviewed the documents before this court, and we conclude that this court's intervention is not warranted at this time.¹ A challenge to the computation of time served must be raised in a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed with the clerk of the
