ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from a final judgment in an interpleader action. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Kenneth C. Cory, Judge.

This court gives deference to the district court's factual findings so long as they are not clearly erroneous and are supported by substantial evidence,¹ which has been defined as evidence that "a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion."² Our review of the record on appeal, appellant's civil proper person appeal statement, and respondents' answering briefs demonstrates that the
