ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

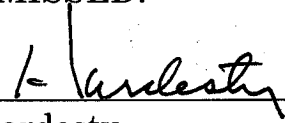

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order dismissing appellant's complaint. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Sally L. Loehrer, Judge.

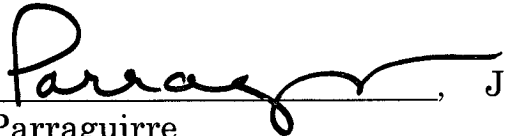

On August 8, 2007, this court entered an order denying appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis because appellant had not yet filed a proper motion to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis in the district court, as required by NRAP 24(a). Our August 8 order directed appellant to either pay the filing fee or demonstrate that a proper motion under NRAP 24(a) for leave to proceed in forma pauperis has been filed with the district court within fifteen days of that order's date. Additionally, that order cautioned appellant that his failure to comply with the order may result in the dismissal of his appeal as abandoned.

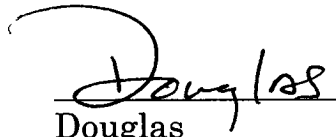

In response to our August 8 order, appellant submitted a document stating that he is unable to pay the filing fee. Appellant has neither paid the filing fee nor demonstrated that a proper motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis has been filed with the district court as required by NRAP 24(a). Accordingly, because appellant has failed to comply with our August 8 order by either paying the filing fee or demonstrating that he had complied with NRAP 24(a), we
