ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

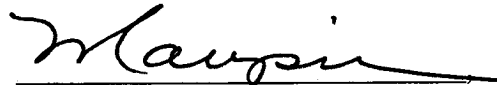

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order dismissing appellant's complaint. Seventh Judicial District, White Pine County; Dan L. Papez, Judge.

On February 12, 2008, we issued an order dismissing appellant's appeal based on his failure to properly serve his notice of appeal on counsel for respondents, Attorney General Catherine Cortez Masto. On April 18, 2008, we granted appellant's petition for rehearing. Our April 18 order noted, however, that appellant had still failed to properly serve his notice of appeal, and gave appellant "a final opportunity to properly serve his notice of appeal on counsel for respondents." We advised appellant that in order to successfully reinstate this appeal, he must properly serve his notice of appeal on counsel for respondents, Attorney General Catherine Cortez Masto, within 10 days from the date of the order.

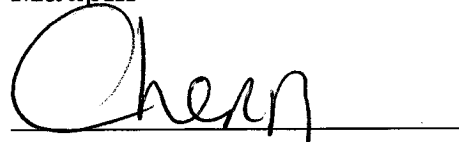

In response, appellant filed a motion for a 10-day enlargement of time to provide this court a copy of his notice of appeal in order to reinstate his appeal. On May 9, 2008, we granted said motion, and advised appellant that no further extensions would be granted.

Nonetheless, in what has become a recurring theme of this appeal, appellant has again failed to serve his notice of appeal on counsel for respondents. Based on appellant's failure to fully comply with this court's directives, appellant's appeal is not reinstated, and we

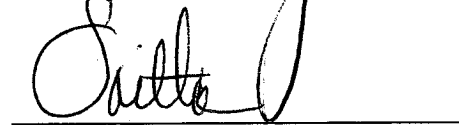

Order this appeal DISMISSED.¹
