

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

SAMMY EARL COLLINS, Petitioner,
vs.
WARDEN, HIGH DESERT STATE
PRISON, DWIGHT NEVEN, Respondent.

No. 49593

FILED

JUN 26 2007

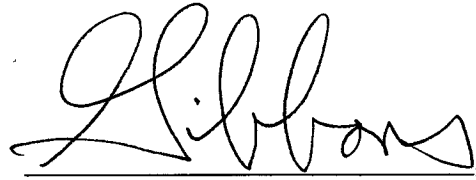

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY [Signature]
DEPUTY CLERK

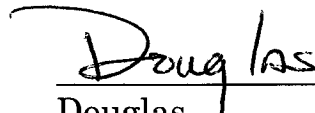

ORDER DENYING PETITION

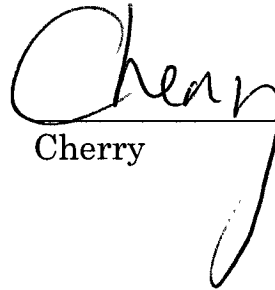

This is a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus. Petitioner seeks an order compelling the clerk of the district court to provide him with a copy of a purported amended judgment of conviction entered in district court case number C126718. We have reviewed all documents submitted in this matter, and we conclude that this court's intervention is not warranted. Petitioner did not establish that an amended judgment of conviction exists in district court case number C126718, and thus, he did not demonstrate that the clerk of the district court has failed in any duty.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.

<sup>1</sup>See NRS 34.160; NRS 34.170. An amended judgment of conviction is not required upon revocation of probation if the district court does not modify the sentence in any respect. Petitioner has not indicated that he sought a copy of an order revoking probation from the clerk of the district court.
