ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

This is a proper person appeal from a 1979 "jury verdict" and a 1989 finding, determination and imposition of sentence. Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Connie J. Steinheimer, Judge.

This court's preliminary review of this appeal reveals jurisdictional defects. Specifically, appellant already appealed the 1979 judgment of conviction, and this court affirmed the judgment of conviction on appeal.<sup>1</sup> Thus, appellant may not initiate a second direct appeal from the 1979 judgment of conviction, and this court lacks jurisdiction to consider this portion of the appeal.

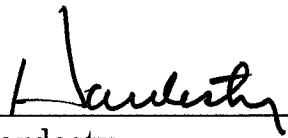

To the extent that appellant attempts to appeal from the 1989 finding, determination and imposition of sentence, this appeal is duplicative and untimely. First, it appears that appellant previously attempted to file an untimely appeal from the 1989 finding, determination and imposition of sentence, which operated as a judgment of conviction, and this court dismissed that appeal for lack of jurisdiction.<sup>2</sup> Even assuming that the June 7, 1996 notice of appeal was not from the 1989 finding, determination and imposition of sentence, any attempt to appeal from the December 7, 1989 order is untimely.<sup>3</sup> Appellant's attempt to rely upon this court's holding in George v. State<sup>4</sup> is wholly misplaced. Accordingly, we
