CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS OR PROHIBITION

This original proper person petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges a district court order denying petitioner's motion to disqualify a district court judge.

This court may issue a writ of mandamus to compel the performance of an act that the law requires as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station, or to control an arbitrary or capricious exercise of discretion.<sup>1</sup> A writ of prohibition may be issued to compel a district court to cease performing acts beyond its legal authority.<sup>2</sup> Neither mandamus nor prohibition will issue when the petitioner has a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law.<sup>3</sup> Because writs of mandamus and prohibition are extraordinary remedies, whether a petition will be considered is entirely within this court's discretion.<sup>4</sup>

A petition for a writ of mandamus is the appropriate vehicle to seek disqualification of a judge,<sup>5</sup> and disqualification is appropriate when a judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.<sup>6</sup> But the party seeking disqualification bears the burden to demonstrate that disqualification is warranted, and speculation is not sufficient.<sup>7</sup> Moreover, a judge has a duty to sit in the absence of disqualifying bias, and the judge's determination that he should not voluntarily disqualify himself is entitled to substantial weight.<sup>8</sup> Here, petitioner has not articulated any grounds for disqualification, except that the district judge ruled against
