ORDER DENYING PETITION

This is a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus. In a post-conviction appeal pending in Docket No. 48390, this court entered an order of limited remand and directed the district court to enter findings of fact and conclusions of law regarding several claims omitted from the district court's written order denying a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.¹ Petitioner notes that the time for complying with the order has passed, and petitioner seeks an order compelling the district court to comply with this court's order or a declaration from this court that petitioner has exhausted state remedies. We have considered the documents submitted in this matter, and we conclude that this court's intervention is not warranted at this time.² This court may resolve any
