ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from district court orders granting respondent Circus Circus Hotel Casino's motion to dismiss and granting respondent Titus Agacinski's motion to quash. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Mark R. Denton, Judge.

Our review of the documents submitted to this court reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the district court has not entered a final, appealable judgment resolving all of the issues as to all of the parties to the underlying action.¹ Here, although the district court dismissed the case as to Circus Circus and granted Agacinski's motion to quash, it has not entered an order formally dismissing appellant's claims against Agacinski.² Because appellant's claims against respondent Agacinski

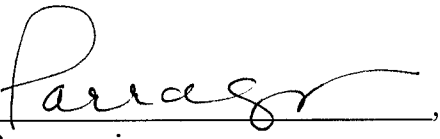

¹See Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 426, 996 P.2d 416, 417 (2000) (defining a judgment as final when it "disposes of all the issues presented in the case, and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney's fees and costs").

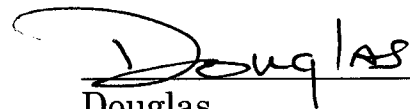

²See KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 810 P.2d 1217 (1991).
