ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

The parties to these appeals have submitted a stipulation to dismiss the appeals without prejudice to appellant's right to move for reinstatement, if the district court declines to approve the parties' stipulation to vacate its judgment and dismiss all claims with prejudice. We approve the stipulation and dismiss the appeals without prejudice to appellant's right to seek reinstatement if the relief sought in the district court is not granted. Pursuant to the parties' stipulation, the parties shall bear their own fees and costs.

It is so ORDERED.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Although the parties have also requested that this court remand the matter to the district court for consideration of their stipulation to vacate the judgment and dismiss the case, we deny that request. Upon the dismissal of the appeals on the parties' stipulation, jurisdiction over the underlying case automatically returns to the district court, rendering a remand unnecessary.
