ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order granting respondents Signtronix, Inc. and Tom Johnson's motion to dismiss and their motion for fees and costs. Third Judicial District Court, Lyon County; David A. Huff, Judge.

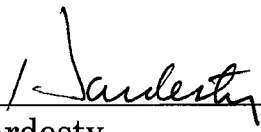

Our review of the documents before us reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, it does not appear that a final, appealable judgment has been entered in the underlying case.¹ A final judgment is one that disposes of all issues presented in the case and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney fees and costs.² Although the challenged order dismisses appellant's claims against respondents Signtronix and Johnson, it appears that appellant's claims against Jason Martinez and Judy Martinez remain pending in the district court. Accordingly, as no final judgment has been entered in the underlying case, we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we

¹See NRAP 3A(b)(1) (providing for an appeal from a final judgment in an action or proceeding).

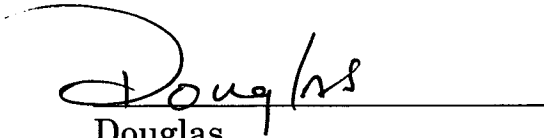

²Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000).
