ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

On April 3, 2008, appellant filed a proper person notice of appeal in the district court. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Douglas W. Herndon, Judge.

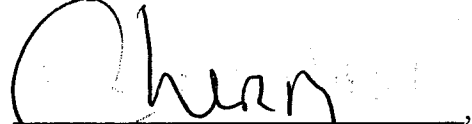

Our review of the notice of appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the notice of appeal does not designate the order being appealed. Further, our review of the district court docket entries indicates that the only appealable order that has been entered in the district court is the judgment of conviction, which was entered on January 10, 2008. To the extent appellant is attempting to appeal from the January 10, 2008, judgment of conviction, the notice of appeal was filed well after the expiration of the 30-day period prescribed by NRAP 4(b). An untimely notice of appeal fails to vest jurisdiction in this court.¹ Accordingly, we conclude we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
