ORDER DENYING PETITION

This is a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus. Petitioner claims that the district court erroneously denied his motion for court documents at state expense. Consequently, petitioner seeks an order directing the district court to provide him with the documents sought in the motion. We have considered the documents submitted in this matter, and we conclude that this court's intervention is not warranted at this time.¹ Petitioner has not demonstrated that he is entitled to documents at the state's expense.² Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
