ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from respondent's application to enforce a foreign judgment. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; David Wall, Judge.

Our review of the documents transmitted to this court pursuant to NRAP 3(e) reveals a jurisdictional defect. This court has jurisdiction to consider an appeal only when the appeal is authorized by statute or court rule.¹ We lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal as respondent's application to enforce a foreign judgment is not appealable² and because it appears that no written order³ enforcing the foreign ⁴Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000) (providing that a final judgment is an order or judgment that finally resolves all claims against all parties to an action and leaves nothing for the district court's future consideration except for post-judgment issues).

⁵We note that appellant's failure to timely file his civil proper person appeal statement demonstrates that he has abandoned this appeal, which constitutes an independent basis to dismiss this appeal.
