ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

This original petition for a writ of habeas corpus seeks an order releasing petitioner from the Clark County Detention Center ("CCDC") after the district court found him in contempt.

Petitioner's challenge to his confinement is based on his claim that the district court's contempt order is unlawful. When our review of the documents before us revealed a potential justiciability concern regarding this petition, specifically, that petitioner has already been released from confinement, we determined that this petition may be moot because petitioner already received the relief he sought, his release from the CCDC. Accordingly, on October 3, 2008, we issued an order directing petitioner to show cause why this petition should not be dismissed as moot. Our October 3 order cautioned petitioner that his failure to demonstrate that this petition is not moot may result in the dismissal of this petition. Petitioner's response was due on October 13, 2008. To date, petitioner has failed to respond to our October 3 order in any way. Accordingly, we conclude that this petition is now moot, and we
