ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

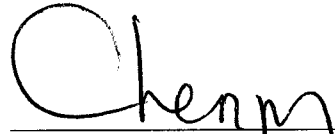

This is an appeal from a district court order remanding a workers' compensation matter for additional medical evaluation and providing for supplemental briefing. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; James A. Brennan, Judge.

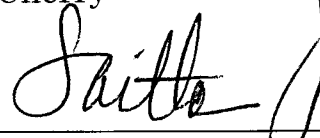

Respondent has filed a motion to dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction, arguing that the district court's order is interlocutory, not an appealable final judgment. Appellant opposes the motion, asserting arguments addressed primarily to the merits of the underlying dispute, not to the issue of this court's jurisdiction.

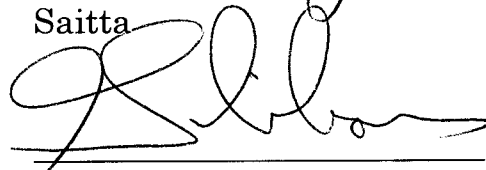

A final judgment is one that resolves all claims as to all parties and leaves nothing for the court's further consideration, except certain postjudgment matters such as costs and attorney fees. Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000). Here, the district court's decision does not finally resolve the petition for judicial review, and thus, it is not an appealable final judgment. Clark County Liquor v. Clark, 102 Nev. 654, 730 P.2d 443 (1986). Accordingly, as we lack jurisdiction, we
