ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court dismissing appellant's complaint for failure to prosecute. We have reviewed the record, and we conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion. See EDCR 5.90 (a family case that has been pending for more than one year and in which no action has been taken for more than six months may be dismissed, on the court's own initiative, without prejudice). Accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal dismissed.¹
