ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order relating to appellant's motion to vacate, correct and/or modify sentence.¹

On May 4, 1999, appellant filed a motion to vacate, correct and/or modify sentence in the district court. In his motion, appellant stated that he did "not seek to overturn his sentence"; rather, appellant stated that he sought to strike "the erroneous and false information concerning Anthony Holloway" from the presentence investigation report. The district court's minute entries for June 1, 1999, indicate that the district court granted appellant's motion and "REFERRED [the matter] to the Division of Parole and Probation for a correct PSI so that Anthony Holloway's criminal history does not follow [appellant]." Pursuant to this court's September 22, 1999 order, the district court entered a written order on October 26, 1999, reflecting the decision above. This appeal followed. Based upon our thorough review of the record on appeal, we conclude that the district court did not err. Accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal dismissed.

¹On August 24, 1999, appellant filed a notice of appeal in the district court. Appellant did not, however, designate the order appealed from as required by NRAP 3(c). We elect to construe appellant's appeal to be from the district court order relating to his May 4, 1999 motion to vacate, correct and or modify sentence.
