CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a judgment of conviction, pursuant to a guilty plea, of possession of a stolen vehicle. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jennifer Togliatti, Judge.

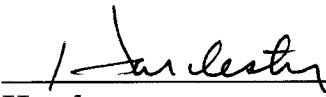

Appellant argues that the district erred by denying his presentence motion to withdraw his guilty plea as his plea was involuntary because he was mentally impaired when he entered his plea and counsel was ineffective. The district court considered the plea agreement and plea canvass in denying appellant's motion to withdraw his guilty plea and concluded that his plea was knowingly and voluntarily entered. Nothing in the submissions before us suggests that the district court abused its discretion in this regard. See Molina v. State, 120 Nev. 185, 191, 87 P.3d 533, 537-38 (2004). And because appellant failed to provide this court with the plea canvass or the plea agreement, which are necessary for our review of his claims, we presume that those materials support the district court's decision. See Riggins v. State, 107 Nev. 178, 182, 808 P.2d 535, 538 (1991), rev'd on other grounds, 504 U.S. 127 (1992).

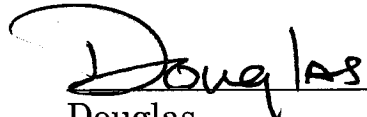

Appellant next contends that the district court erred by denying his motion to appoint independent counsel to assess his claims of ineffective assistance of counsel. We conclude that appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court abused its discretion in this regard.

Having considered appellant's claims and concluded that they lack merit, we

ORDER the judgment of conviction AFFIRMED.
