IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

JUAN ARREOLA, AKA, JUAN PABLO ARREOLA MORFIN, Appellant, vs. THE STATE OF NEVADA, Respondent. No. 52817

19.21115

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from an amended judgment of conviction, pursuant to a jury verdict, of one count each of conspiracy to commit burglary, burglary while in possession of a firearm, conspiracy to commit robbery, attempted robbery with the use of a deadly weapon, attempted murder with the use of a deadly weapon, and preventing or dissuading a witness from testifying or producing evidence. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Valerie Adair, Judge. The district court sentenced appellant Juan Arreola to serve multiple concurrent and consecutive terms totaling 9 to 28 years. Arreola was initially given 426 days of credit for time served. Arreola subsequently filed a motion for an amended judgment of conviction in which he sought one additional day of credit for time served. The district court granted the motion and entered an amended judgment of conviction. This appeal followed.

Our review of this appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. The amended judgment of conviction granted all relief requested from Arreola and did not otherwise alter the original judgment of conviction. Therefore, Arreola is not an aggrieved party. Only an aggrieved party may appeal.

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA NRS 177.015. Arreola's claims challenging his convictions are not properly raised in this appeal. The claims raised on appeal do not pertain to the amended judgment of conviction, and Arreola did not timely appeal from the original judgment of conviction, NRAP 4(b)(1). Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
