JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal. On October 8, 1998, appellant was convicted, pursuant to a guilty plea, of one count of robbery with the use of a deadly weapon. On September 3, 1999, appellant filed a proper person document in the district court entitled "Notice of Appeal: Post Conviction." The clerk of the district court transmitted that document to this court as a proper person notice of appeal.

Our review of the documents before this court indicates that appellant is not appealing from any particular order or judgment. Rather, in the "Notice of Appeal: Post Conviction" appellant challenges the effectiveness of his counsel and the voluntary nature of his plea. These challenges should be brought in a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed in the district court in compliance with NRS 34.720 to 34.830. Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal without prejudice to appellant's right to timely appeal from a final appealable order of the district court.

It is so ORDERED.
