ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a default judgment. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Michelle Leavitt, Judge.

Our review of the documents before us on appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically it appears that the order appellant is challenging is not a final appealable judgment. See NRAP 3A(b)(1) (providing for an appeal from a final judgment in an action or proceeding). A final judgment is one that disposes of all issues presented in the case, and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the district court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney fees and costs. Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000). Here, the claims against several parties remain pending in the underlying district court action. Accordingly, as it appears that a final judgment has not been entered in the underlying case, we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
