ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a district court order partially dismissing a petition for judicial review of Labor Commissioner orders. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Susan Johnson, Judge.

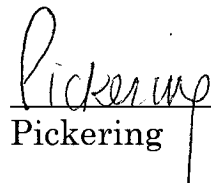

When our preliminary review of the docketing statement and the NRAP 3(e) documents revealed a potential jurisdictional defect, we ordered appellants to show cause, by August 21, 2009, why this appeal should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Specifically, we noted, the district court order identified in the notice of appeal purported to dismiss the petition for judicial review only in part, indicating that issues remained pending below such that the district court had not entered a final, written, appealable judgment adjudicating all the rights and liabilities of all the parties. NRAP 3A(b)(2); NRS 233B.150; Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000); KDI Sylvan Pools v. Workman, 107 Nev. 340, 810 P.2d 1217 (1991). In the order, we cautioned appellants that failure to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction could result in the dismissal of this appeal.

To date, appellants have not responded to our show cause order. Accordingly, as jurisdiction has not been demonstrated, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.¹
