ORDER DENYING PETITION

This original petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges a district court decision to grant a motion to admit evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or bad acts. We conclude that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary writ is not warranted because petitioner has a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of the law. See NRS 34.170; NRS 34.330. Petitioner may challenge the decision on direct appeal if he is convicted. Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
