ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a petition for a writ of mandamus/prohibition. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Lee A. Gates, Judge.

In his petition, appellant claimed that the Central Repository unlawfully stated that he had a sentence of lifetime supervision to serve and unlawfully increased his sex offender tier level from 2 to 3. The State opposed the petition below arguing that appellant was not required to serve a sentence of lifetime supervision and there was no existing controversy regarding his sex offender tier level due to an injunction entered in the federal court. The district court denied the petition.

After a review of the record on appeal, we affirm the order of the district court because appellant failed to demonstrate that he was entitled to the relief requested. NRS 34.160; NRS 34.170; NRS 34.320; NRS 34.330.

Having reviewed the record on appeal and for the reasons set forth above, we conclude that appellant is not entitled to relief and that briefing and oral argument are unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975). Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
