ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS OR PROHIBITION

This original proper person petition for a writ of mandamus or prohibition challenges a district court temporary restraining order. As directed, petitioner filed a supplement to her petition, and real parties in interest filed an answer. Petitioner also filed a motion for leave to file a reply, which real parties in interest opposed; the substance of petitioner's proposed reply was included in her October 7, 2009, motion, and so we deny the motion for leave to file a reply as moot.

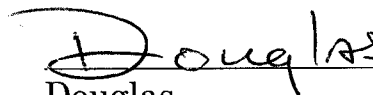

We have considered this petition, the answer, and the reply, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted, as this matter is moot since the temporary restraining order expired by its own terms on September 19, 2009. NRAP 21(b)(1); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 677, 818 P.2d 849, 851 (1991). In the event that the district court thereafter entered a preliminary injunction, such an order is appealable. NRAP 3A(b)(3). Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
