CLERK OF SUPPLEME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order denying a motion to correct an illegal sentence.¹ Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Steven P. Elliott, Judge.

In his motion filed on July 23, 2009, appellant claimed that he was not aware when he entered a guilty plea that he would have to serve a sentence of lifetime supervision or the conditions and consequences of lifetime supervision. We conclude that the district court did not err in denying the motion. Appellant's sentence was facially legal, and appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court was not a competent court of jurisdiction. Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996); see also NRS 201.230(2); NRS 193.330(1)(a)(1); NRS 176.0931(1), ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Luckett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

(5)(c). Appellant may not challenge the validity of the guilty plea in a motion to correct an illegal sentence. Therefore, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.²

²We have reviewed all documents that appellant has submitted in proper person to the clerk of this court in this matter, and we conclude that no relief based upon those submissions is warranted. To the extent that appellant has attempted to present claims or facts in those submissions which were not previously presented in the proceedings below, we have declined to consider them in the first instance.
