ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a petition for a writ of habeas corpus.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Douglas W. Herndon, Judge.

In his petition filed on July 1, 2009, appellant challenged his sentence structure and the calculation of parole eligibility. The district court denied the petition, noting that the petition was moot because appellant had been granted parole on his sexual assault sentence and that the record did not support his claim that he was being required to “reserve” a portion of his sentence.² The record on appeal supports the ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

²Notably, appellant was sentenced to two consecutive terms of life with the possibility of parole.

findings of the district court, and therefore, we conclude that the district court did not err in denying the petition. Accordingly, we
