ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

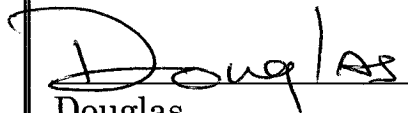

This is a proper person appeal from an order denying a motion to be relieved from sex offender registration and tier-level requirement. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Douglas W. Herndon, Judge.

There is no appeal from an order denying a motion to be relieved from sex offender registration and tier-level requirement filed in a criminal case. Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 792 P.2d 1133 (1990). A petition seeking to be relieved from the requirement to register as a sex offender or the tier-level requirement must be filed as a separate civil action in the district court in whose jurisdiction the petitioner resides pursuant to NRS 179.490.¹ Because appellant has failed to designate an appealable order in a criminal case, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.²

¹We express no opinion as to whether appellant can satisfy the requirements of NRS 179.490 or the merits of any such petition.

²We have considered the proper person documents submitted in this matter, and we conclude that no relief is warranted for the reason set forth above.
