ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court dismissing a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.¹ Seventh Judicial District Court, White Pine County; Dan L. Papez, Judge.

In his petition filed on July 22, 2009, appellant sought the restoration of 200 days of credit forfeited as the result of a 2007 prison disciplinary hearing. The district court dismissed the petition contingent upon the restoration of the 200 days of credit pursuant to a settlement reached in a federal case. Pursuant to an order of this court, the Attorney General has confirmed the restoration of the credits. Thus, we conclude that the district court did not err in dismissing the action because ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

appellant received the only remedy available under a petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging a prison disciplinary hearing—restoration of credits. Bowen v. Warden, 100 Nev. 489, 686 P.2d 250 (1984).

Accordingly, we
