ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

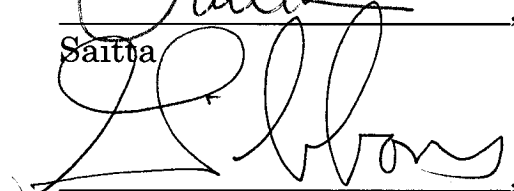

This original proper person petition for a writ of mandamus apparently seeks to compel the district court to enter a default judgment in petitioner's favor. We have considered this petition, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted at this time. See NRAP 21(b)(1); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 677, 818 P.2d 849, 851 (1991). In particular, petitioner bears the burden of demonstrating that extraordinary relief is warranted, Pan v. Dist. Ct., 120 Nev. 222, 88 P.3d 840 (2004), and NRAP 21(a)(4) requires a petitioner to provide copies of any parts of the record necessary to an understanding of the matter. Petitioner has included no documentation whatsoever from the underlying district court case, and we therefore have no way of evaluating his claims. Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
